ALBANY MONEY MACHINE 2014: FLAG DAY EDITION
“SHOWING THE STATE CAPITOL’S TRUE COLORS” (GREEN, IT TURNS OUT)
AT LEAST 176 FUNDRAISERS IN ALBANY AND BY LEADERSHIP SINCE JANUARY
GOVERNOR CUOMO’S PROMISES TO END THIS PRACTICE STILL UNREALIZED

During the six-month period January 1-June 30, 2014, there will have been 176 political fundraising events in Albany or for leadership.

For this period, the Senate is scheduled to be in session for 58 ½ days and 38 nights. The Assembly is scheduled for 61 ½ days and 41 nights.

Here are the governor’s statements on the need for “pay to play” legislation:

- “New York must severely limit campaign contributions from public contractors and lobbyists ... in order to end the ‘pay to play’ practices of Albany.”
[See page 8 of “The New NY Agenda: A Plan for Action.”]
- “Albany-area fundraisers and lobbyist campaign contributions should be restricted during the legislative session.” [See page 14 of “The New NY Agenda: A Plan for Action.”]
